NEW SPRING STORY IS UP NOW AT THE BRYANT-MAMARONECK PARK *STORY WALK

White Plains, NY - April 26, 2018. It's spring and a new story on the Bryant-Mamaroneck Park StoryWalk has been selected.

My Spring Day: The Most Wonderful Time of the Year, written by Ally Nathaniel and illustrated by Milena Radeva. Gabi and her siblings Adam and Abigail, wake up to a beautiful spring day and have fun exploring the many simple things one can do outside with friends and family. My Spring Day will inspire your children to want to go outside and enjoy outdoor activities and create their own springtime adventures.

The StoryWalk, a partnership between the City of White Plains Recreation and Parks Department and the White Plains Public Library, combines a children's story with a popular walking route. The StoryWalk is a great way to inspire parents, teachers, and caregivers to take young children on a short stroll and introduce them to a new book at the same time.

This month’s StoryWalk will run through Friday, May 31st. Look for updates on the changing stories on the Recreation and Parks Department website.

About the Park:

The Bryant-Mamaroneck Park is located on the corner of Bryant and Mamaroneck Avenues. The park entrance is on the Mamaroneck Avenue side. Parking is available in the City of White Plains Mamaroneck Avenue parking lot (lower level).

Bryant-Mamaroneck Park opened to the public in October 2014. It offers residents a half-mile looped walking trail in a natural park setting. The property has been owned by the City of White Plains since 1950 and was dedicated as parkland in 1988. It had been a long standing goal of the City to utilize the parcel as passive parkland that is open and accessible to the public.
