PROGRAMS, ACTIVITIES & SERVICES GUIDE

www.cityofwhiteplains.com

Dear Neighbors:

The City of White Plains believes in building connections and creating a vibrant, inclusive space for all - and this year's programming reflects just that. Please take a moment to explore this Guide, mark your calendars, and invite a neighbor to join you in the many exciting programs and events planned for the upcoming fall and winter seasons.

We have programs for residents of all ages, abilities, and interests, from toddler classes to festive celebrations, we've got something to appeal to everyone.

Whether you're looking to learn something new, get active, or simply connect with neighbors, our calendar is full of opportunities to engage and enjoy.

I am also excited to let you know of our plans for a proposed brand new Inter/Multi-Generational Community Center. The Center will be a centralized, year-round indoor facility that will serve residents of all ages. This facility will provide flexible, accessible space for recreation, education, and community programming and will serve as a welcoming, central hub promoting connection, wellness, and lifelong engagement for children, teens, adults, and seniors alike. Thank you to all who shared their insight and opinions to create this space. Your participation towards the needs of our community has been invaluable.

As I prepare to conclude my time as Mayor, I want to take a moment to express my heartfelt thanks to the people of White Plains. It has been the honor of a lifetime to serve this remarkable community, and I am proud of the progress we've made together. One of the greatest joys of this role has been seeing the ways in which our seasonal programs bring people together - across generations, cultures, and neighborhoods. I encourage everyone to take part in this year's fall and winter events. Let's continue to build a stronger, kinder, more connected White Plains.

With gratitude and excitement,

PARK FACILITIES

THE CITY BLOOMS, THANKS TO WHITE PLAINS
BEAUTIFICATION FOUNDATION

White Plains Beautification Foundation has enhanced our parks and other public areas with flowers, shrubs, trees, street clocks, a carillon, fountains, a blooming basket, a flagpole, a gazebo and a summerhouse for 6 decades. WPBF is an all-volunteer, not-for-profit organization supported by the city's Departments of Public Works and Recreation & Parks, and engages with local nurseries to create and maintain more than 65 gardens and parklets. Its Adopt-a-Park program allows individuals, businesses and other organizations to support the mission. In the fall, WPBF plants thousands of daffodil bulbs around the city. Early bloomers, those daffodils burst forth each spring, followed by tulips, cherry blossoms and ornamental fig blossoms. It keeps the city filled with cheerful blossoming plants and shrubbery that bring joy and a park-like vibe to our urban setting. WPBF welcomes volunteers and would love to hear from you. Send an email to info@wpbf.org to receive the annual newsletter and announcements of upcoming activities. Visit the website at wpbf.org.
