Wellness
Wednesdays
Fall 2018

Relax with Reiki

September 12 & November 28,
7:00-8:30 p.m.

Join Andrea Deierlein for a conversation about Reiki, a natural healing practice from Japan that brings balance to body, mind, and spirit. Mini Reiki sessions will be available after the introduction.

Deierlein, a member of the International Association of Reiki Professionals, practices and teaches throughout Westchester County. For more information, visit her site, thrivereiki.com.

Stress Management

September 26, 7:00-8:30 p.m.

Health educator Dr. Elizabeth S. Wind offers a toolkit of mindfulness and stress management techniques for immediate use. Wind has taught and led programs on stress management, meditation and mindfulness in many academic and business settings, including Westchester Community College and Westchester Jewish Community Services.

Relax and Restore with Sound Meditation*

October 10, 7:00-8:30 p.m.

Experience a sound journey with Harmonic Alchemy duo Dr. Celine Daly and Julie Harris. Vibrations from their singing bowls, drums, gongs and flutes will soothe and help participants recalibrate. Daly is a physician and flutist and has studied sound healing extensively. Harris is a Reiki Master, Sound Healer, and flutist. Both have expertise in the Native American style flute playing. For more information, visit Daly's site, celinedaly.com.

Sound Healing & Tibetan Singing Bowls*

November 7, 7:00-8:30 p.m.

Explore the ancient, restorative potential of Tibetan singing bowls to awaken a natural state of deep relaxation. In playing these bowls, Michelle Clifton shares an experience of beautiful sound that can calm the mind and release tension. Clifton is a Master Sound Healer and massage therapist who has been studying energy healing since 1987. She incorporates singing bowls into her private practice and has played for festivals, libraries, and group workshops.
