BRYANT-MAMARONECK PARK StoryWalk®
"Clothesline Clues to the First Day of School"

White Plains, NY –September 5, 2023. We are excited to announce the posting of a new book along the Bryant-Mamaroneck Storywalk Trail. "Clothesline Clues to the First Day of School" written by Kathryn Heling and Deborah Hembrook is a fun and inspiring book about a clothesline that holds clues to friends old and new.

On the first day of school, who welcomes you? Spot A+ clues on the clothesline to identify all the people who make starting school so much fun! High on the clothesline hang clue after clue. It is the first day of school! Who wants to meet you? Readers will meet the crossing guard, teacher, cafeteria cook, custodian, gym teacher, art teacher among many new friends.

This month's StoryWalk will run through October 10. Look for updates on the changing stories on the Recreation and Parks Department website.

 About StoryWalk®
The StoryWalk®, a partnership between the City of White Plains Recreation and Parks Department and the White Plains Public Library, combines a children's story with a popular walking route. This event is a great way to inspire parents, teachers, and caregivers to take young children on a short stroll and introduce them to a new book at the same time. The StoryWalk® Project was created by Anne Ferguson of Montpelier, VT and developed in collaboration with the Kellogg-Hubbard Library. StoryWalk® is a registered service mark owned by Ms. Ferguson.

About the Park
The Bryant-Mamaroneck Park is located on the corner of Bryant and Mamaroneck Avenues. The park entrance is on the Mamaroneck Avenue side. Parking is available in the City of White Plains Mamaroneck Avenue parking lot (lower level).
